

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Harrisburg, Va.—Virginia McDonald, said to be the only fourlegged person to reach the age of five years, died of tonsillitis recently. She had four perfectly developed legs and four arms and was normal mentally.

Springdale, W. Va.—W. R. Smith found a freak potato in the garden. It had grown through a silver pipe stem band and projected about three inches on each side of the band. The band is embellished with a relief bust of former President Taft.

Walnut Ridge, Ark.—Bobby Watson, a balloonist, fell from a height of 500 feet when he cut loose his parachute at the end of a balloon ascension at the Fall Festival. He fell through the sheet iron roof of a gin, struck a two by four and bounded off to the ground. He was picked up with a broken leg and several broken ribs. He will live.

San Francisco, Cal.—Miss Pauline Turner, of Bremerton, Washington, entertained the Rotary club of Rochester, N. Y., by singing over the long distance telephone. The club members in Rochester were furnished individual receivers and a special line was leased for the service.

Buffalo, Wyo.—Mrs. Martha Early, 94, at the wheel of an automobile, recently made a sixty mile trip from Sheridan to Buffalo.

Clarendon, Ark.—The Misses McNow, one 85 and the other 83 years of age, made their first railroad trip the other day when they visited relatives in Oklahoma. The women are very feeble, neither has ever married and had never seen a railroad train until they made their first trip.

Dallas, Texas.—Miss Bettie Alexander, 22, had died. Mrs. Eliza Powers, 72, was at death's door; both from ptomaine poisoning, on a farm nine miles from Cisco, Texas. Mrs. Powers dragged herself to the side of a dog, tied to his neck a note and told him to go home. The dog made his way through a storm to Cisco, and help arrived in time to save the woman.

Los Angeles, Cal.—A letter which had been traveling for three years arrived at its destination with twenty-three postmarks on the envelope. It was sent from Vancouver, to Oaxaca, Mexico, originally.

Pomeroy, O.—"Deacon" Long, the mayor of this city, sleeps in his trousers, and has been doing it for years. Recently, when ill, he was forced to try a night shirt, but was so uncomfortable that his trousers were restored to him.

Chardon, O.—In 1862 Mrs. Eliza Eldridge took a pint of her excellent currant wine, bottled it and gave it to her daughter Mrs. Martha W. Pease, with injunctions not to open it until her 50th wedding anniversary. The cork had never been disturbed until it was pulled on December 4th, 1915.

Joliet, Ill.—Half way down the steps of a Rock Island flyer, Mrs. F. Milton Collins, of Sioux City, Iowa, remembered she had not kissed a relative, who was with her goodbye. She turned without looking, and planted a resounding kiss squarely on the lips of "Dinah" Brown, the negro porter. Mrs. Collins fainted. Waynesboro, Pa.—After working without an accident, for 45 years as a railroad engineer, John Clouser, 68, stepped from the cab of his engine on a Pennsylvania line, was thrown under the wheels and crushed to death.

Recommended for Croup

Coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, inflamed throat, bronchial troubles, or sore chest are relieved by Foley Honey and Tar which opens stopped air passages, soothes and heals inflamed surfaces, and restores normal breathing. W. C. Allen, Boseley, Mo., says: "I have raised a family of four children and used Foley's Honey and Tar with all of them. I find it the best cough and croup medicine I ever used. I used it for eight or ten years and can recommend it for croup." City Drug Store.

NOTICE OF CONTEST

Office, Clayton, N. M., December 14, 1915.

To unknown heirs of Francis M. Howe, deceased, of Clayton, N. M., Contestee:

You are hereby notified that Frank D. Taylor, who gives Carmen, Oklahoma, as his post-office address, did on November 13th, 1915, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry, Serial No. 011758, made July 27th, 1910, for E 1-2 of SW 1-4, W 1-2 of SE 1-4, Section 29, Township 28N., Range 37E., N. M. P. Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that Francis M. Howe, died at Clayton, New Mexico, on January 7th, 1913, and left no will to the knowledge of affiants herein; that the heirs of said entryman, who are unknown to affiants, have wholly failed to reside upon, cultivate or improve said land, since the death of said entryman, and the above defaults continue down to date of contest affidavit.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be canceled without further right to be heard, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail.

You should state in your answer the name of the post-office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.
